

Dear colleagues,

FELASA is proud to announce the opening of the call for session and workshop submissions for its 15th congress, which will take place in Marseille, France from the 13th till the 16th of June 2022.

The Scientific Committee has embraced the theme of this FELASA Congress, 'Communication', and has designed four streams each with a different angle and direction of communicating, see document attached – FELASA 2022_Streams – for additional information:

1. Communication with and between animals
2. Communication and Culture of Care
3. Education and training: Communication towards the future
4. Communicating between peers, authorities and the public

The Scientific Committee is delighted to invite you to submit proposals for workshops and complete, turnkey sessions within the framework of the proposed themes. We hope you feel inspired.

Instructions:

You can enter the Call for Session Proposals platform via this link. You will be asked to submit the following information.

1. Create an account at the program submission platform by following the provided link (Please use only one account for your society):
Click here
2. Introduce the submitter information (contact details and affiliation)
3. Select a maximum of two streams in order of preference. In compiling the programme, the scientific committee will make the final decision giving priority to your first and second choice.
4. Select a Session Format
 - Session (90 minutes)
 - Workshop (90 minutes or a multiple thereof)
5. Session/Workshop title
6. Description of the proposal:

- For Sessions you will have to indicate the objective, describe how the session talks fit together and the target audience.
 - For Workshops you will have to indicate the objective, describe how the workshop talks and other planned activities fit together, target audience, minimum and maximum number of registrants, technical requirements, other requirements you may consider, if the workshop will be repeated, and if so, how many times?
7. Chairperson including contact details (institution, city, country, phone, and email address) if different person from the submitter.
 8. Information on speakers including their respective presentation titles, short description of the content of each of the presentations, time allotted to each presentation (45 / 30 / 20 / 15 minutes including time for discussion), and contact details (institution, city, country, phone, and email address).
 9. Review the information and Submit
 10. If you wish to submit another Session and/or Workshop, please feel free to do so and start a new submission.

Note: The official language of the congress is English.

The call closes on June 30, 2021.

You will be notified of acceptance of your proposed session or workshop before the opening of the call for abstracts (expected the second half of September 2021).

We encourage you to share with us any suggestions you may have for FELASA 2022.

Together we will shape the congress!

Yours sincerely,
